FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

Cotton Firm—Middling, 8 7/8c—Sales Yesterday, 2700 bales.

Money rules in strong demand at 8 per cent. Local securities continue steady.

A leading New York circular on cotton futures says: "It was essentially a bear market. On the influence of better advice from Liverpool a point or two was gained at the opening with evidence of an effort in a few quarters to hold the position, but liberal supplies offering along the line carried the day, and the bulk of the trading was on a declining scale, prices closing 5¢ points off from the highest, with tones easy."
